

HEADQUARTERS MULTINATIONAL DIVISION NORTH

ADAZI, LATVIA KARUP, DENMARK

Brigadier General Lennie Fredskov Hansen

Chief of Staff Multinational Division North

---

Last updated: 24 March 2022

---

Brigadier General Lennie Fredskov Hansen was appointed as Chief of Staff, Multinational Division North 26 September 2019.

He is native of Viborg, Jutland, and a graduate from the Danish Army Military Academy in Copenhagen. He has graduated from the Danish Army Specialist Training School as a Military Interpreter (Russian language) and Advanced Course I at the Danish Army Military Academy (Paper on Russian Foreign Policy). He is a graduate from the Danish Army General Staff Course (Paper "The Influence of Technology on Military Doctrine and Organization"). Graduate from the Danish Joint Command and General Staff Course and NATO Staff Officers Orientation Course.

He has supplemented with a number of civilian courses in management and strategic communication.

Colonel Lennie Fredskov Hansen's command assignments include Commanding Officer Regional Command East, Commanding Officer Battlegroup North, ISAF 10 in Helmand, Afghanistan, Commanding Officer II Infantry Battalion and Company Commander at The Royal Lifeguards, Denmark.

His key staff assignments includes Defence Attaché at the Royal Danish Embassy in Moscow, Director Strategic Communication at the Danish Defence Command, Senior security and defence advisor at the Prime Minister's Office and Major at The Ministry of Defence.

NATO UNCLASSIFIED

His decorations include i.a. Knight of the Order of Dannebrog, 1st Degree.

Brigadier General Lennie Fredskov Hansen is married to Inger Drengsgaard.

In his limited spare time, Brigadier General Lennie Fredskov Hansen enjoys hunting and horse riding.

NATO UNCLASSIFIED